with you and have spent many pleasant hours. I sincerely hope that many many more can be spent with you. To me you are one of the very best & I think that a fellow could know you will be in my memory for many years to come, I only hope that I will be remembered by you. I will look forward to next Christmas time which will be the need of enjoyment.

Wishing you many years of happiness in the future

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

TULSA, OKLAHOMA

Dedication

As a measure of our esteem, we dedicate this year-book to WILLIAM HOWARD HAKE, whose contributions have added to the greatness of Central high school just as Oklahoma's contributions have added to the greatness of our nation. High scholastic standards and whole-hearted participation in those activities enjoyed by students and faculty alike, make Mr. Hake deservedly popular.

Loyal friend and counselor to all, "Pop" Hake with his twenty-five years of service, well deserves the title "grand old man of Central."

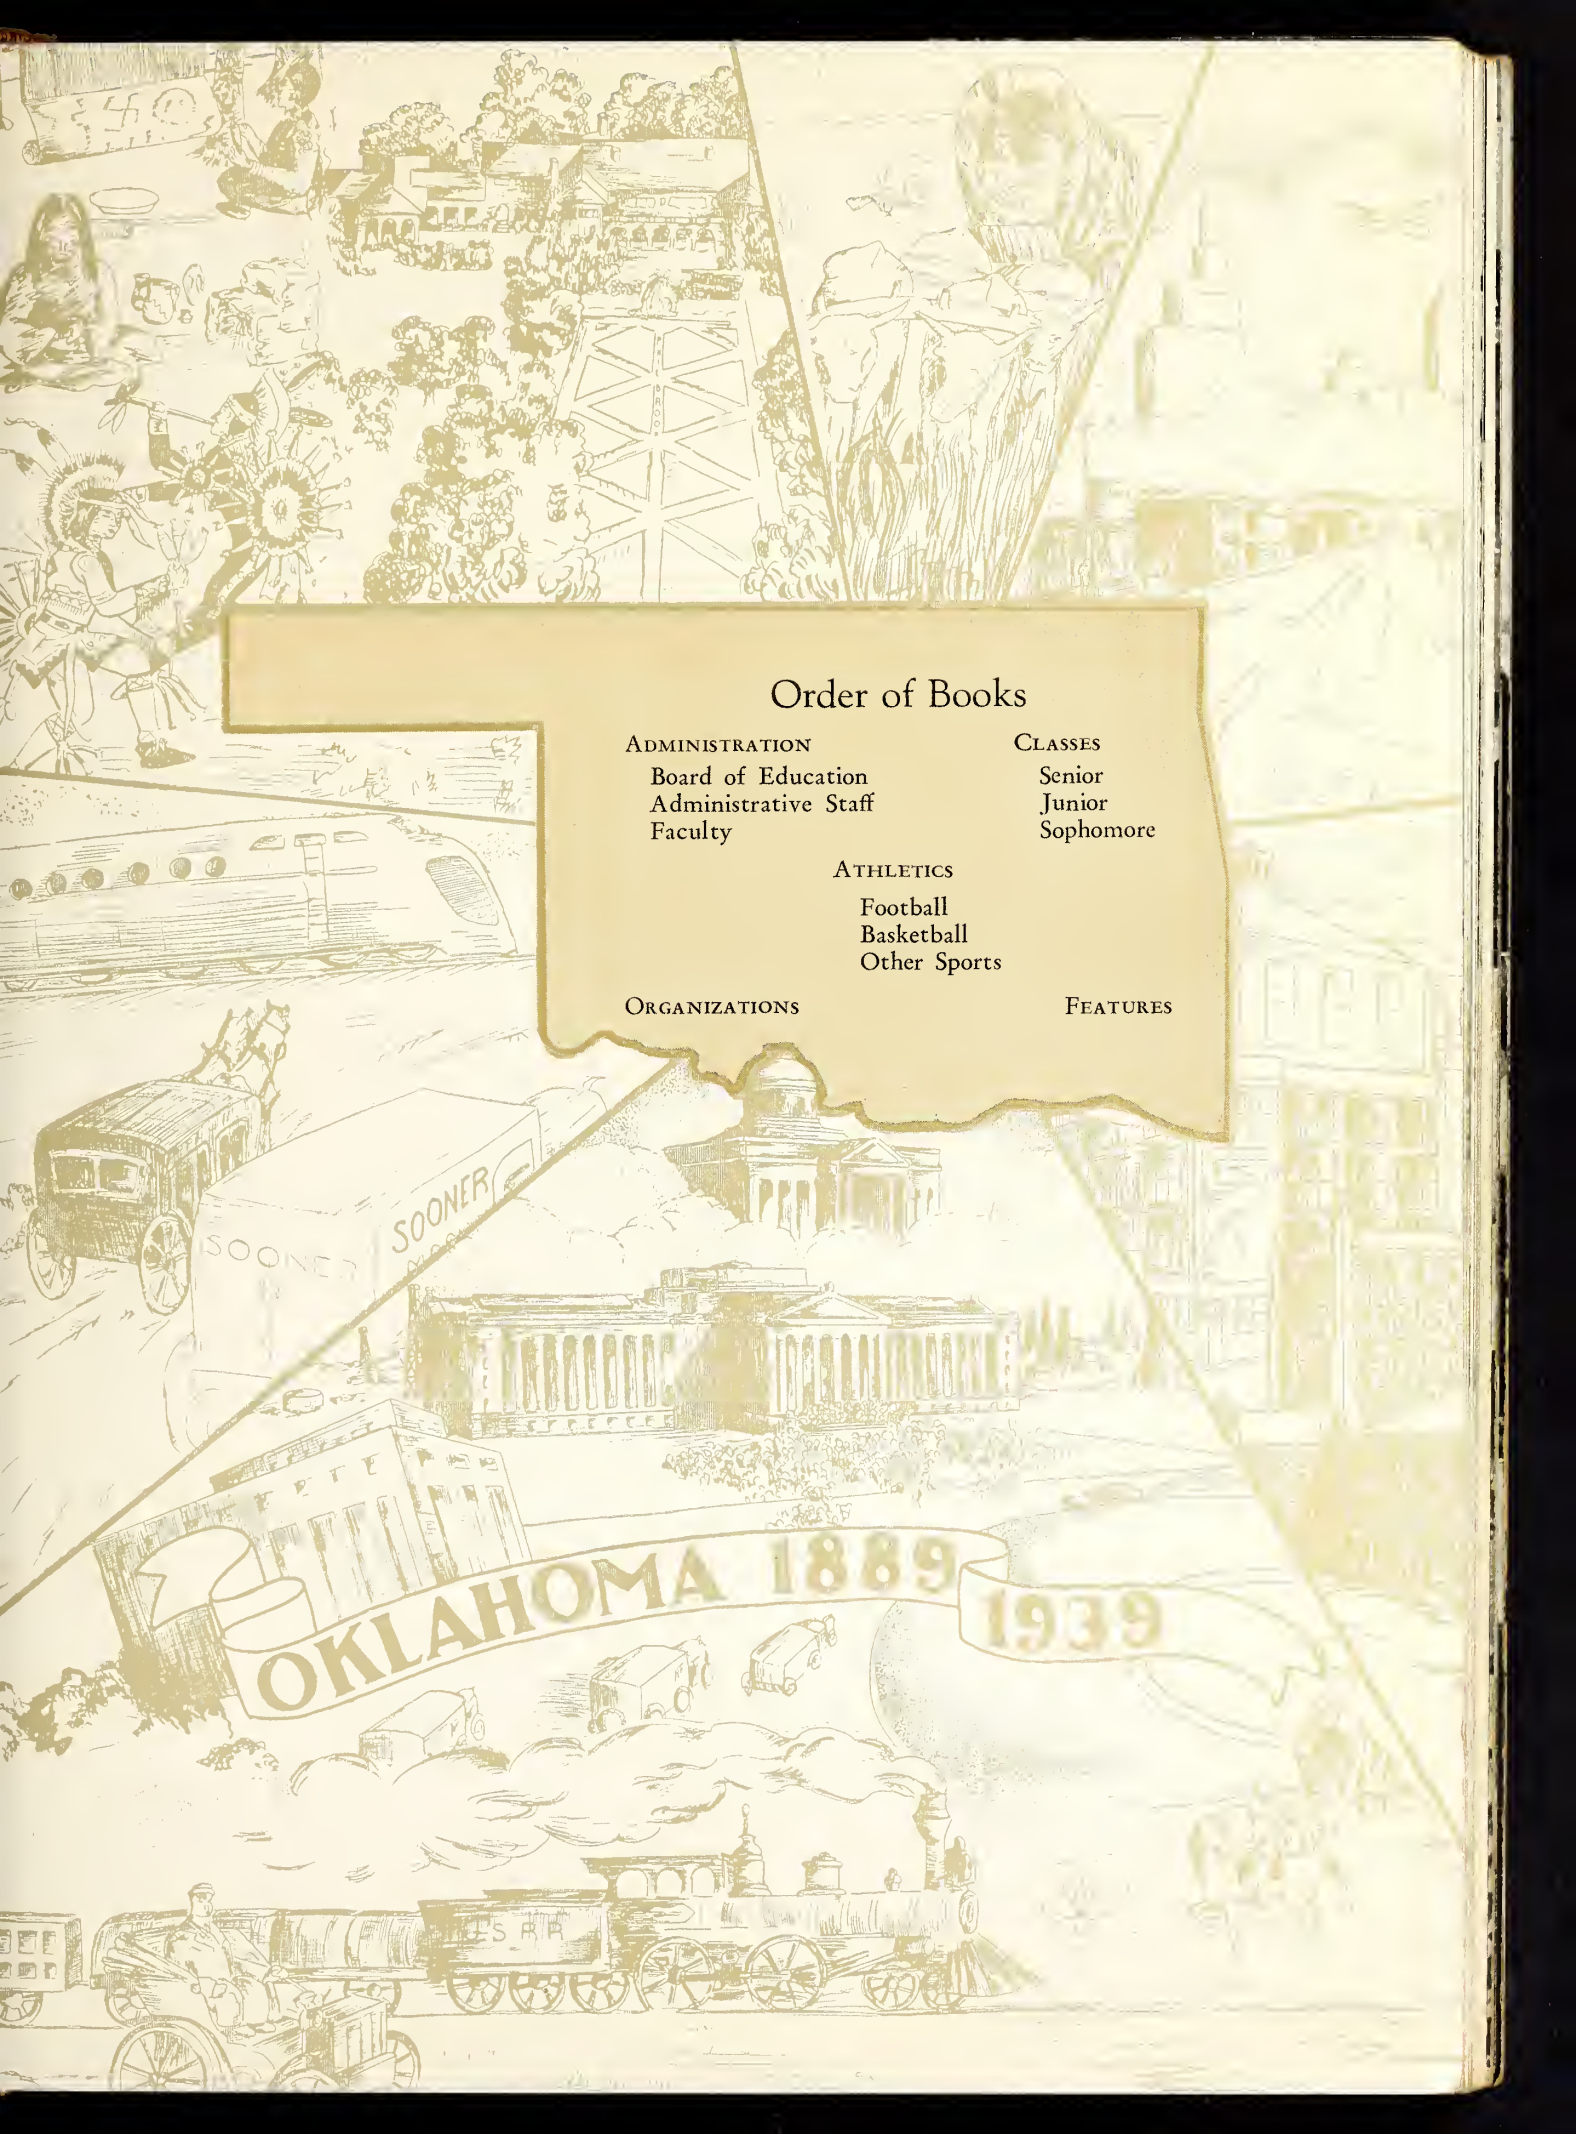

W. H. HAKE

Foreword

Oklahoma's growth and development from 1889 to 1939 has been remarkable. The realization of early dreams provides a colorful and individual state heritage. Aware that this transformation is of great interest to the students of Central, the 1939 Tom Tom staff welcomes the opportunity to present a full year of student activities blended with fifty years of Oklahoma progress.

Classes

Probably few Centralites stop to realize that 1939 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of Oklahoma to settlement. The majority of them, however, do agree that theirs is the best state in the Union. Many have grandparents who participated in some of the runs for land, and bravely suffered privation and want before they became settled in the new country. We do not suggest that the students take up their residence in a sod shanty or subsist on bread and potatoes, but we do think that Centralites might benefit by the possession of some of their ancestors' fortitude. Realists would say there is no need for Indian fighters and frontiersmen now. True enough, but there is a need for alert young people to take over this mad world which the preceding generation has plunged into such a predicament. There is a need for someone who can solve the problems our parents have left us.

In supplying this need, Central and its students are performing a service, the magnitude of which they little realize.

The Tom Tom goes to press too early to include pictures, and in some cases, names, of late enrollments, or to take into account withdrawals.

Senior Class

Hailing Jack James and Ivan Johnson as supreme potentates in sophomore and junior years, this year the class rode proudly on to greater victories under the leadership of Edwin Sipple and Pat Suppes. We startled the dramatics world with such masterpieces as Poor Little Rich Girl, Nathan Hale, Abie's Irish Rose, and Stagedoor. Miss Ednamay Weeks, assisted by Mrs. Maud Wendt and Miss Linnie B. Wilson, has led our wandering feet through three enjoyable years at Central. Now, we must don the formal robes of senior dignity and prepare to leave these hallowed halls. We earnestly hope that in some way we have enriched Central as much as she has benefitted us. We leave best wishes for future senior classes and with a prayer that we will not be forgotten.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

1. Seniors who gave their interpretation of Stage Door.
2. A gathering of graduates.
3. Our cabinet poses for its constituents.
4. We autograph our Tom Tom pictures.
5. Seniors endorse fingerprinting project.
6. Annual Christmas assembly.
7. Seniors take time out from work.
8. A tense moment in Stage Door.
9. Class of '39 in full dress.

Junior Class

Take their word for it, this Junior Class has hung up a record for breaking records. Not content with being the largest class in the history of the school (1,813 at the last census), they broke all class play ticket selling records with their first semester production, Clarence, by Booth Tarkington. From there they proceeded to shatter all precedent by presenting, as their second semester dramatics offering, Hazel Kirke, with all the fuss and feathers that went with a night at the opera house back in the gay eighties.

Under the able leadership of Miss Lulu B. Beckington, class director; Miss Isabel Watkinson and Mrs. Madge Gibson, assistants, and Penn Lary, president, the Junior class is sure to go on to greater heights and more records in Central.

If it's not one thing, it's another. That's what everyone says after watching the Junior Class for a while. This largest group of Central's children seems to think that precedents were made to be broken. Clarence Smum panicked two audiences, while the antics of the quality quartet in Hazel Kirke rolled another pair in the aisles.

This highly original class even depends upon itself for its own class assembly programs. As the need arises different home rooms volunteer their services to help make a meeting click. Among the most successful of these home talent shows has been a Thanksgiving program, sponsored by Miss Catherine Crissey's home room, and a Christmas assembly presented by prodigies of Fred Bennett and Miss Louise Wilson.

Beautiful, lovely
Charming, Poise
Cute, adorable softness, freshness and a hundred other things.

I don't know how to say it.
But you know what it takes

Bill

Sophomore Class

Culminating their first year of activities at Tulsa Central high school, members of the sophomore class find themselves on the threshold of new experiences in the coming year.

These youngest pioneers in the field of secondary education have lived up to the high standards set by the many sophomore classes which have preceded them and under the leadership of their president, Larry Mills, they have set up higher standards for the classes to follow.

Their extravaganza of the circus, The Little Clown, was one of the best sophomore class plays yet produced at Central.

It is in the sophomore year that lasting friendships are started and carried on through adult life. In this first year the student learns the value of cooperation and self-sufficiency.

Under the skillful guidance of Miss Gertrude Rector, and her assistant directors, Miss Maude Lourey and Miss Lela S. Copeland, the sophomore class has developed a spirit of leadership and intellectual ability such that it can sincerely be said the future greatness of Tulsa Central high school lies in the hands of capable students.

1938 Football Team

Unfortunately 1938 marks a low point in Central's gridiron history. This, however, is due largely to the inexperience of many on the team, since only eight lettermen returned last fall. The Braves did manage to defeat the VanBuren and Okmulgee gridsters, but the rest of the season they seemed to be outweighed, outplayed or outclassed. In the last game, with the Muskogee Roughers, the Braves showed some of their old spark, but were nosed out by their traditional rivals. Prospects for 1939 are brighter.

Coaches are Harold James, head coach; Melvin Riggs, assistant; Otto Endres, B team.

Basketball

Thud-thud-thud-swish. Another basket, and another victory for Central's Braves. That's what happened in the eighteen games on the regular schedule and at the State Tournament at Oklahoma City. Some of the contests were push-overs while others required every bit of fighting spirit the Braves possessed, but easy or hard, Central's quintet came through with flying colors, and under the direction of Grady Skillern, finished the first undefeated season since 1931.

Wrestling

After twelve years of Art Griffith and an almost unbeatable wrestling squad, Central is becoming accustomed to having her grapplers win all the time, and this year gives the habit an even stronger hold. The 1939 aggregation of matmen collected seven victories and no defeats, and placed first in the district and first in the state finals. This is the tenth state championship the Braves have won. There is promise of an equally great team next year.

Swimming

Under the coaching of Otto Endres, Central tanksters again splashed their way through an undefeated season, leaving all comers in their foaming wake. The Tulsa University freshmen first tasted defeat to the tune of 43-23. They were followed by the Classen Comets, 50-16; and the Oklahoma Military Academy mermen, 56-10. T. U. and O. M. A. gave a return showing, but were sent back with scores of 46-29, 50-16.

The Wichita East high team was the next to fall, 58-8; and the Comets came back for more and got it, 49-17. The Independence swimmers succumbed, 55-11, and Wichita East boys were repulsed for the second time, 38-28. Wichita North lost 39-27, and the Independence and Coffeyville natators went the same way, 52-14 and 39-27.

This year's lettermen are David Allen, Edgar Bottler, Orien Clark, Bill Donaldson, Clyde Fox, Fred Kessler, Jack Keys, Charles McCammon, Chester McKeon, Brock Mott, Mike Travis, and Guy Neil Willits.

Baseball

The 1938 baseball team showed a successful season, losing only once. With the capable hand of Grady Skillern at the helm, Central's Braves beat every opposing team except the Capitol Hill nine, to which they dropped a game. They more than made this up, however, by winning the first place plaque at the A. and M. tournament.

With William C. Lantz directing, Central's track team made a good showing in 1938, winning all of its dual meets and taking first place in the Oklahoma Six Conference. William Bowles, Eutis Coplin, Bill Hagar, Truman Moote, Mode Perry, Eldon Potter and Cecil Tyree won medals for excellence in various track and field events.

Tennis

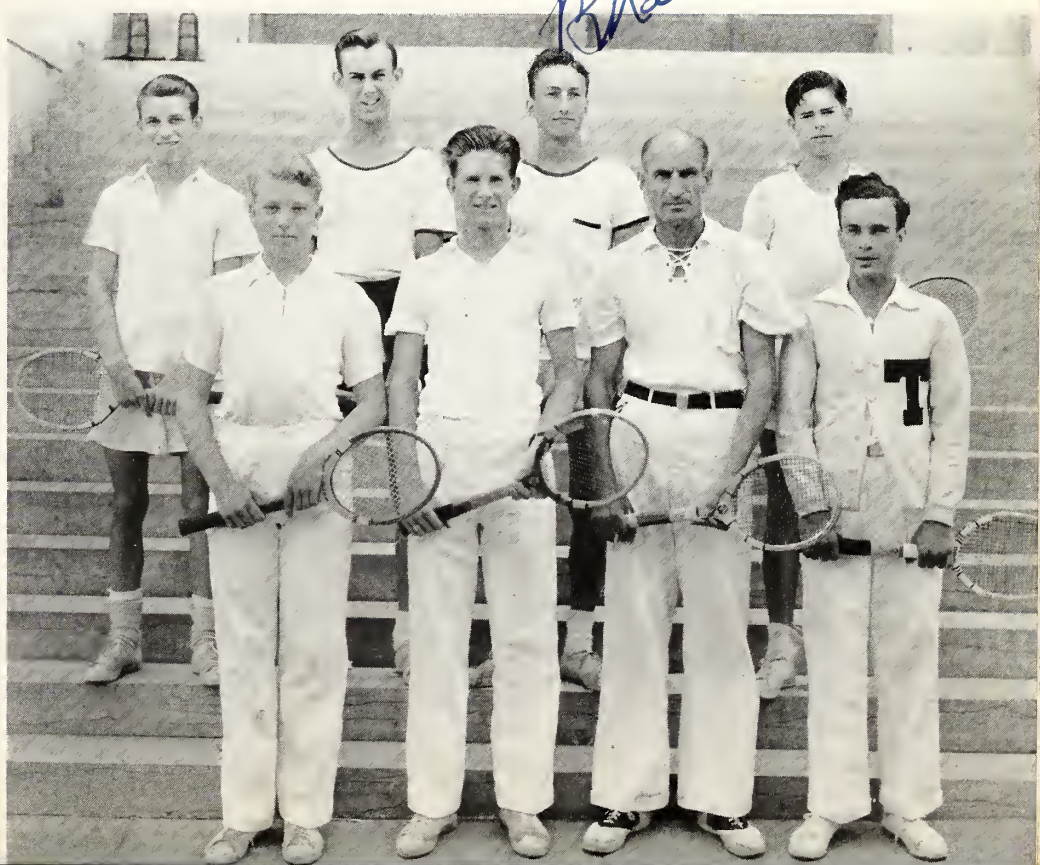

Central's tennis Braves began their 1938 season by taking second place in the Winfield tournament. They next lost to the Classen Comets 2-10, but redeemed themselves by trouncing the Muskogee Roughers 12-1 and 16-2. Following that the netsters defeated the Cushing team 14-1. Then they took first place in the Tulsa Interstate Tournament, second in the Tonkawa tournament and first in the Oklahoma Six Conference.

The Sapulpa Chieftains lost to the Braves 12-0, but the Oklahoma Military Academy boys held them to a 7-7 tie. The O. U. and A. and M. tournaments yielded a first and a second to Central, and the Sapulpa team dropped the last match of the season to the Braves, 7-2.

FIRST ROW—Duane Burger, Bill Gannaway, Otto J. Endres, coach; Joe Bradley.

SECOND ROW—Gene Wilson, John Kline, Bill Maxwell, Jack Pickens.

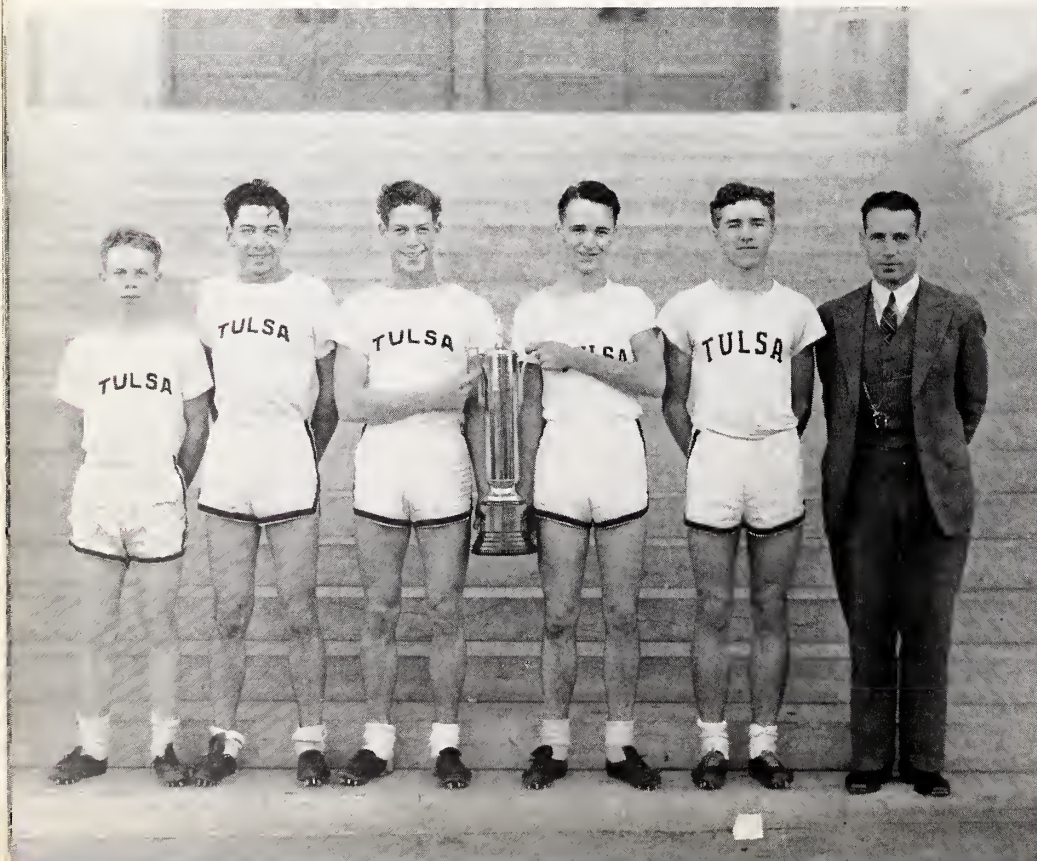

Cross Country Track

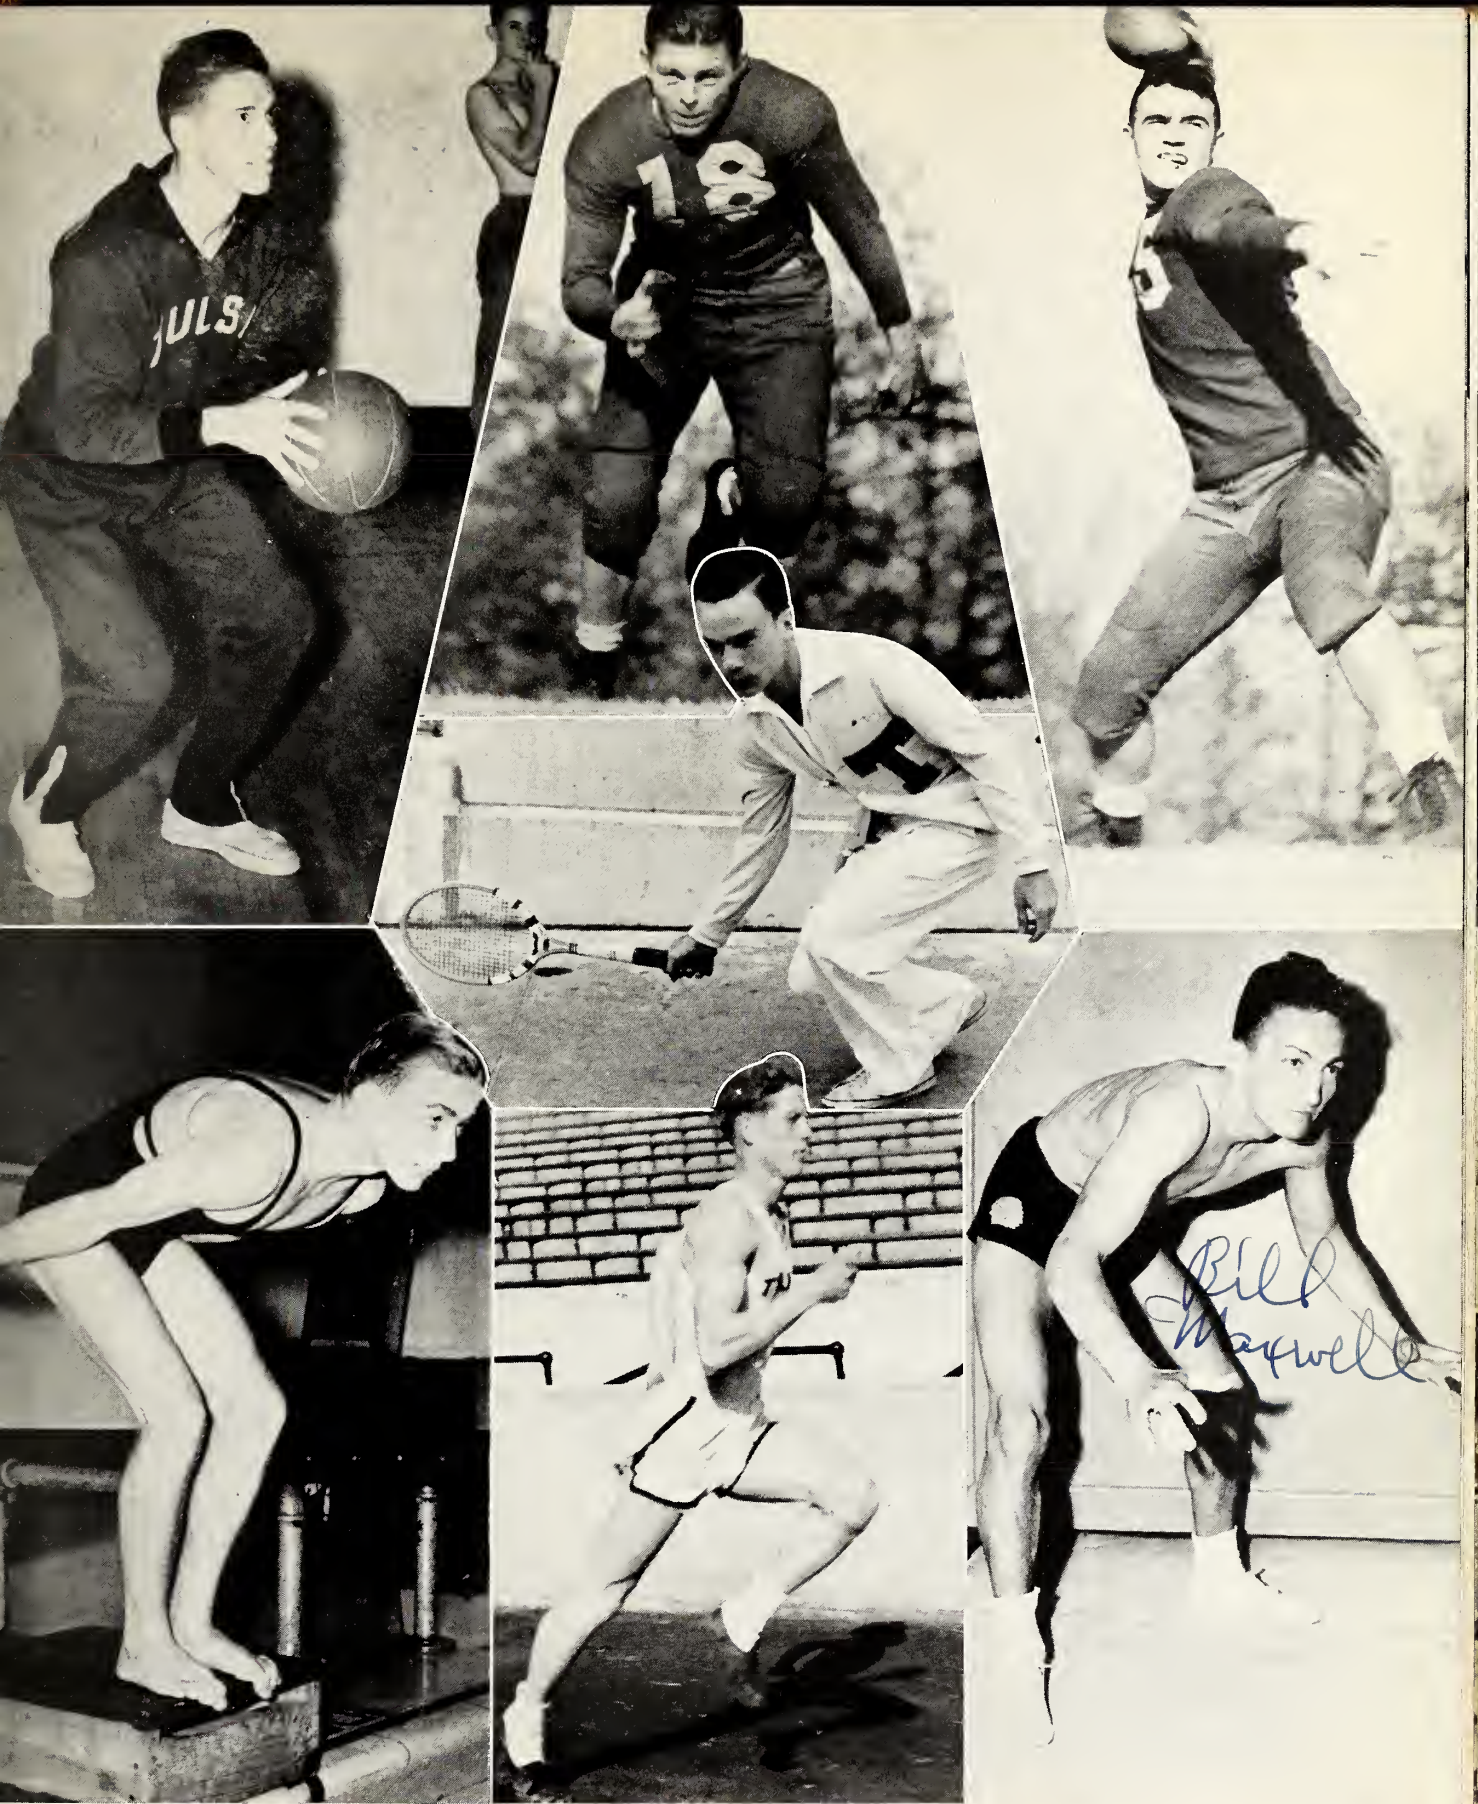

These are the Mercuries whose winged feet have brought honor and glory to Central in the track world. Under the able coaching of William C. Lantz the team has developed into a first class organization that has showed up extremely well, so far winning the team trophy at both of the Norman meets that have been held. Mode Perry, who is also dramatically inclined, won the individual championship and set a new state record.

The cross country team bids fair to follow the example of other teams of this high school and become well nigh unbeatable. If it does so, Central can make another chalk mark on the wall beside the many that are already there.

Organizations

Organizations

Starting with the Tom Tom in 1909, the number of affiliated organizations in Central has grown to more than forty, representing a range of student activities from social work to hobbies. Some clubs have assigned themselves duties, such as providing Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for the poor. Others give their members experience and practice in their vocations or avocations.

Since the members of the student Senate are drawn from the various organizations, the level of student participation is governed by the standards of those organizations.

Another thing to be kept in mind is the training afforded by the hobby clubs. Within Central's walls are organizations which give information and experience in science, the arts, and athletics.

The most important consideration, however, is the associations one acquires in a club. Acquaintances made at organization meetings may and often do develop into lasting friendships. Moreover, it is a fact that membership in a group is beneficial to the individual personality.

Senate

This year makes the nineteenth the Central Senate has functioned as an official organization. It has been useful in sponsoring Junior High Day and a parliamentary law class. Not quite so successful, though an honest effort, was the Four-club Dance. Another thing about the Senate, it is the best place in the school to learn the ins and outs of Roberts' Rules of Order. Just ask Suppes.

Senators say there is nothing like being a member of the Senate. They are a group set apart, who greet each other with "Hello, Senator."

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

House of Representatives

As the gavel raps, the motley crowd, composing the House of Representatives, comes to order, and Dick once again starts hoping that at this meeting no radical ideas will be introduced. His hopes are quickly shattered, though, by Collins and Adrean. The one thing, however, that the House agrees on is that it is the most representative and democratic organization in the high school.

To this chamber of the school congress are sent representatives from each home room who are supposed to voice the opinions of their home rooms concerning needed improvements in the school.

House of Representatives

The goal of this decidedly leftist branch of our congress has been to promote democracy in government and school thought and increase student participation in school activities.

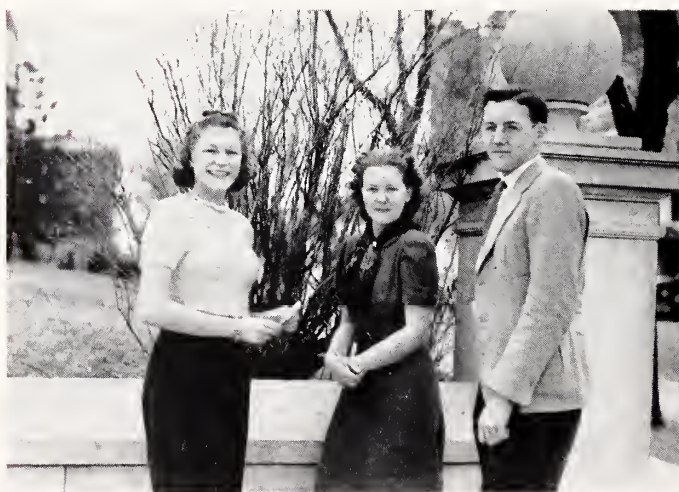

Toward this aim, the House sponsored a clothes drive, October 17-24, in co-operation with a group from the Parent-Teachers Association with efficient Mel at its head. Under the chairmanship of ambitious Jim, a safety campaign was held. Another activity of the House was the forming of a student committee which investigated the relative powers of the House and the Senate.

Courtesy Service Club

David Naylor calls for order and Marian Obermiller reads the minutes. Kay Hicks, J. C. Cox, Marian and David patrol the halls to see that duties are being fulfilled. The Courtesy Service Club is one of the largest in Central with a membership exceeding two hundred pupils.

Students in the corridors catch bits of C. S. C. colloquialism such as "where's your pass" or "I don't care if you are in a hurry, that pass has to be stamped by the office." A much more effective phrase is "don't think you're going out this door without a pass."

Courtesy Service Club

Functioning successfully since 1925 the Courtesy Service Club has given each of its members his own distinct memory of his service to the school via the C. S. C.

One C. S. C.'er will never forget the time the chairs were taken out, and all the dignified members were found lounging on the steps. Gloria Swanson and Aleen Fisher were certainly embarrassed the time they tore a boy's coat in the attempt to keep him from leaving the building without a pass. Dorothy Stoner enjoys the mad scramble to get the doors open for fire drills; of course the ice-skating party was enjoyed by all.

FIRST ROW—Frances Williams, Dorothy Mae Cook, Frances Smithline, Mary Ruth Wilkinson, Frances Campbell, Virginia McEntire, Helen Richards, Virginia Trees, Marjorie McDonald. SECOND ROW—Ashly Hagar, Betty Palmer, Ilene McCoplin, Olive Belle Murdock, Evelyn Freed, Dorothy Shaffer, Marion Obermiller, Orvell Curtis. THIRD ROW—Jack Griffin, Jim Crankshaw, Verle Hunt, Harry Pullen, Dolores Reeves, Pauline Fenton, Ruth Ansley, Gloria Swanson, M. M. Black, sponsor. FOURTH ROW—Florence Hurst, Gene Wilson, Ray Melvin, Billy Jarrell, Deurelle Watkins, David Naylor, Ethel May Haney, Ben West, Philip Bowman.

Courtesy Service Club

Under the sponsorship of M. M. Black, assistant principal, the Courtesy Service Club executes its numerous duties of enforcing school regulations and assisting visitors and pupils about the school.

Courtesy Servicers obtained a great deal of enjoyment from Mary Alice Byrd's imitation stunts every noon at the main entrance. It is a good thing the members of the C. S. C. are efficient because it is a physical impossibility for Mr. Black to be at all seven doors at once although some rule breakers will swear that he is.

SPEAKERS' BUREAU

Speakers' Bureau

At 7:50 o'clock on Monday and Tuesday mornings the first members begin to drift in. By 8:10 there is a quorum. Then Speakers' Bureau is really in session. General Johnston's nephew calls for order, business is transacted, and the program is started. Tommy and Joan argue about the relative merits of the social club reformation. Bill defends School Life. Pat thinks the League of Nations is a failure.

When the talk dies down, Miss Alphild Larson, sponsor, regales Bureauites with stories of past Dazes, and informs them of opportunities for public speaking that lie in the offing.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

International Club

Hubert calls the International Club members to order for their weekly meetings. Traveling around the world in two delightful lectures was the privilege of club members.

George Pearson narrated his harrowing experiences when faced with a broken axle on his car in the Mexican jungles, and he not knowing a word of Mexican! Serious discussions of international problems, and the Langenheim-Johnson chess games lent variety to the activities. Miss Lavonne Hanna, the sponsor, served as referee in the verbal battles, quieting the jangled nerves.

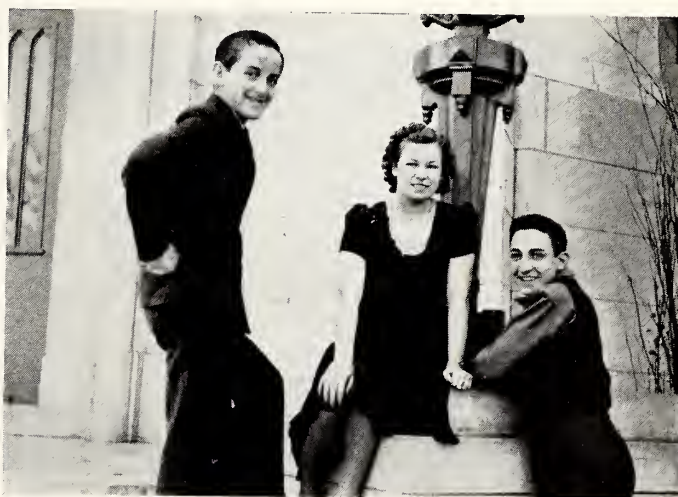

ADVERTISING BOARD

Advertising Board

A. C. Askew calls the meeting to order. Mr. J. Roy Inbody delivers his weekly chat. The new candidates are impressed by the fact that all members are selected because of their ability to work and their pleasing personality. A. C. loses count of his credits, graduates himself and Morris Billington steps into his shoes the second semester.

Committees working with home room ticket managers for The Big Pond, Smilin' Through, You Can't Take It With You, and The Gondoliers indicate the energy and the initiative of members of the Advertising Board.

PASIPIKANS

Pasipikans

Led by that wee bit of dynamic force, Peggie Wolfe, the Pasipikans had a most enjoyable year sponsoring archery, swimming, tennis, baseball, hockey, and basketball tournaments and participating in week end outings and sport banquets and spreads.

Organized in 1938 by merging the Girl's Athletic Association and Outing Club, the Pasipikans take their name from a Indian word meaning leaders.

Mrs. Helen Corrubia has been a real inspiration to the girls in forming the new organization.

BRAVETTES

Bravettes

When you see a girl walking down the hall bedecked in a white jacket, red skirt and a white shirt with an Indian head emblem attached, you know she's a member of the Bravettes.

The Bravettes, organized in '30, is a service and pep organization whose purpose is to usher at all entertainments given by the school, and to stimulate school spirit at the school's athletic events. This year approximately seventy-five girls have joined, thus insuring every Brave a Bravette, to boost his spirit and encourage him to nobler deeds.

TOM TOM

Tom Tom

Upon opening the door you are greeted by a wave of clickety clacks from the battery of typewriters. As you start to enter, you are bowled over by Tommy and Dick, those demon photographers, as they make a mad dash for T. C. R. Somewhat recovered, you go in, and are rushed by Kaufmann and the Deeleys, who ask if you know anybody in this or that group picture; while Bob pleads for quiet so that he can get an idea.

You stagger out, wondering if that screwy staff can ever put out a yearbook, but, believe it or not, they can. This is it.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Girls' League

During the current year, presidents Frances, Madge, and Barbee have ably presided over the Girls' league assemblies—those meetings which no boy ever sees. The assemblies provide the one available opportunity for the girls in each class to meet together. The League has as its goal promoting closer fellowship, encouraging desirable traits of character and developing pleasing personalities.

Sponsor, Mrs. Minnie Mae Summers, has again guided the groups in their activities which included programs of outstanding speakers, Christmas baskets, and Mother's Day telegrams.

STUDENT CUSTODIANS

Student Custodians

Since 1925, there have been more than 500 members in the Student Custodian Club. These fellows can testify to the fellowship found in the organization. The activities vary from the cleaning and repairing of the buildings, to slumgullions and the final banquet.

The club's efficiency contest keeps the boys working with enthusiasm. At the start each boy is given 1000 points, and as errors slip into their work points are deducted. A monitor, who uses all of nature's gifts along with man made materials to locate errors, has charge of each floor and the boys who work there.

Do you hear strange noises emitting from the vague regions of the stage or wonder who rushes out from behind the curtains to steal away Mr. Foster's chair almost before he rises? It's only the stagecraft crew.

These young men must also accept responsibility for the queer hammering noises grating one's ears if he travels near the stage sets, for they design, construct and paint the scenery for all of Central's entertainments. Changing scenery between acts, and securing proper lighting and sound effects also come under their realm.

Camarata

Led by that bit of feminine dynamite, Gerre Lee Wall, and sponsored by Miss Esther Larson, the Camaratas have hurdled another year successfully. With the aim of furthering student aid, they sponsored the sale of Christmas cards and thus made a substantial donation to the student welfare fund.

Their meetings, held every other Monday, nearly always are concerned with the very important issue of whether they will be able to meet their debts. They also plan their various social activities, some of which have included a spaghetti dinner and a dance.

GIRL RESERVES

Girl Reserves

Promptly at 4:00 o'clock every Thursday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A., the meeting of the Girl Reserves commences. The president, Dorothy Springer, arrives promptly at 4:30. Then the programs, which are intended to further the aim of improving one's self, follow. They have included many well-informed speakers, including Madame DeBissy, who told the girls that they wore too much lipstick and not enough rouge; Mrs. Ida Marie Johnson, who discussed the latest spring fashions; and E. M. Austin, who informed them as to the process of movie making.

This is that gang of happy-go-lucky young fellows, who might be mistaken for reds, but who actually form one of the most democratic of organizations, Central's pep squad. The Scalpers are found at nearly every school function, handing out programs or ushering.

As they have grown older, the Scalpers have become a little less boisterous. They have ceased their war-paint and feathers initiation, curtailed their belt lines, and even toned down their part of the Scalper-Band battle. Although more changes may be expected, it is believed that they will not change the color of the shirts to pink.

OPERA CLUB

Opera Club

This is one place where it is better to be heard than seen. In three years the Opera Club has made a place for itself in Central's traditions with its productions of The Pirates of Penzance, The Mikado and The Gondoliers. Besides acquainting the students with Gilbert and Sullivan, the organization has given its members remarkable training in voice work.

What Opera clubber can forget Hallowell's knee pants, Jack and Betty's duet, or the time Mr. Whitney's voice stuck at falsetto. Yes, sir. They had high times in there, especially at rehearsals, when the old members sang parts of last year's opera.

SAINT CECILIANS

Saint Cecilians

For the twelfth consecutive year the Saint Cecilians have made their musical mark in Central. They might be called the girls' auxiliary of the Orpheus Club, since the two were organized in the same year.

But singing is not the only activity of these fun-loving females. Their chief delight is to call down Mr. Morgan, their accompanist, whenever he makes a mistake. Next to their director, Gerald Whitney, their hero is Nelson Eddy, whose picture, sent personally to the Saint Cecilians, now rests in state in a perfectly gorgeous frame.

ORPHEUS CLUB

Orpheus Club

This musical menage has as its reason for existence the vocal verification of Central's reputation for producing good singers. Directed by Gerald Whitney, its performances, both in public and in private, bring credit to the school.

The singers' surroundings are particularly conducive to success in their line of endeavor. Notes, musical and literary, cover the blackboards of Orpheus Club's classroom. From the west wall Beethoven frowns down upon them, while immediately under the deaf composer, Mr. Morgan counteracts with a cheery smile and an occasional off note.

ORCHESTRA

Orchestra

If you want to hear the story of Lohengrin, who missed the first boat and had to take the second, just consult the orchestra, for they know all about it, due to the consistent teaching of "Pop" Weatherly. Question someone on what they think would be the greatest miracle in orchestra history and the bets are two to one, he'd say when the oboes get in tune.

After playing for over a hundred occasions and surviving through a chili supper and a couple of picnics, the orchestra has glided through the year to the tune of Pop's "That's got it."

BAND

Band

This populous assemblage of players is one of the best in the country. Ably directed by Albert Weatherly and captained by Jim Blazer, it has played for football games, parades and assembly programs. It is one of the largest high school bands in the United States, and for that reason can perform stunts which are beyond smaller organizations. It is particularly famous for its Indian designs. One of its best musicians is Pop Weatherly, who can hum, sing or whistle any part that may be absent.

It is noted in passing that the ancient Scalper-Band feud has rather died down.

A CAPPELLA

A Cappella

For nine years the A Cappella Choir consistently has contributed its share to the cultural background of Central. This maroon-robed chorus thinks nothing of singing for an assembly, then going to class for an hour's rehearsal, and then going out to give a performance before some civic group.

Each time the choir sings, George Oscar Bowen, director, who plays the tin whistle exceptionally well, tells the members how awful they were and how flat they went; but down in his heart of hearts he is very proud of them, and so is Central.

GAMMA KEYSTONERS

Gamma Keystoners

Presided over by vivacious Max, Gamma Keystoners come to order every Monday night. The mishaps of the previous meetings are read by Eleanor. Discussion of the three special projects of the year—furnishing a complete Christmas for a family, formation of an Etiquette society to help girls solve their social problems and aiding poor families—progresses and the meeting adjourns.

Working toward the idea of cooperation between the various chapters, Gamma contributed to the success of the Christmas Vesper services and the Tri-Chapter dance.

ALPHA KEYSTONERS

Alpha Keystoners

To the tune of "Swing Your Partners," Alphas start off the year's entertainment with a barn dance. Then presiding Peggy announces the project for the coming year is furnishing food and fun for the Children's Home. Toward that end, a Thanksgiving basket, a Christmas tree and party, and a show, are donated by Alpha chapter.

Anniebeth helps with the entertainment by giving a travel talk in costume on her trip to Mexico. The Alphas are also hypnotized and various other speakers add to the general enjoyment of the group.

Alpha Keystoners

The year advances, and Adrienne gets more and more white hairs worrying about the programs. Beverly has writer's cramps by now trying to keep up with the fast and furious dialogue being waged in the panel discussion centering on the ideal boy and girl. Mrs. Hiram Alexander has by now given the Alphas up as hopeless cases of jitterbugs, and Mary Kimbrough makes them all confirmed journalists.

Never evading the question, "Is that what a Keystoner should do," these feminine Hi-Y'ers have won for themselves a respected position in our school.

BETA KEYSTONERS

Beta Keystoners

As Gloria raps for order, one-hundred odd Beta members reluctantly attempt to cease chattering at least long enough to hear Ruth read minutes or Mary Carolyn reel off amazing records of debit and credit.

After Doris calls the roll, the chapter settles down to the worthwhile program arranged by Mavis. In accordance with their purpose, "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," Keystoners find opportunities to hear educational and inspirational speakers as well as purely entertaining ones.

Beta Keystoners

Beta decides to carry out its annual project of a Mexican party at Christmas. George Pearson comes to the rescue when we forget to invite the guests and helps round up little Mexicans. Despite difficulties on pre-Christmas Friday, the Y. M. C. A. abounds with Mexicano babes expecting and getting a good time.

Participating with other chapters Beta sponsors a beautiful and impressive vesper services at Christmas. In a spirit of fun, Beta members arrange a "Bean Supper," and a roller skating party as well as several dances, both formal and informal.

DELTA KEYSTONERS

Delta Keystoneers

Under the clever management of Marjorie, this new Keystone chapter has enjoyed a very successful year. With Joan guarding the roll and Pat hugging the treasury, Delta has carried out their group project to the utmost degree, that of providing clothing for an entire family during the year.

The group, made up of senior girls who wished to be charter members and juniors who wished to carry it on next year, has sponsored a Christmas dance and also backed a sports dance which exemplified the type of entertainment the Keystone organizations foster.

Delta Keystoneers

Every Tuesday night the Deltas have gathered down at the Y. M. C. A. and been entertained by various speakers and programs. Among those who have addressed the group have been Miss Lucy Sailes, who related her adventures in Africa; Miss Doris Luff, who amused the group by her readings; and Miss Mary Kimbrough, a Tribune staff reporter.

Besides their social activities, the Delta chapter has participated in the annual Hi-Y membership drive, the Hi-Y, Keystone family banquet and in the pre-Easter yearly broadcast held in March.

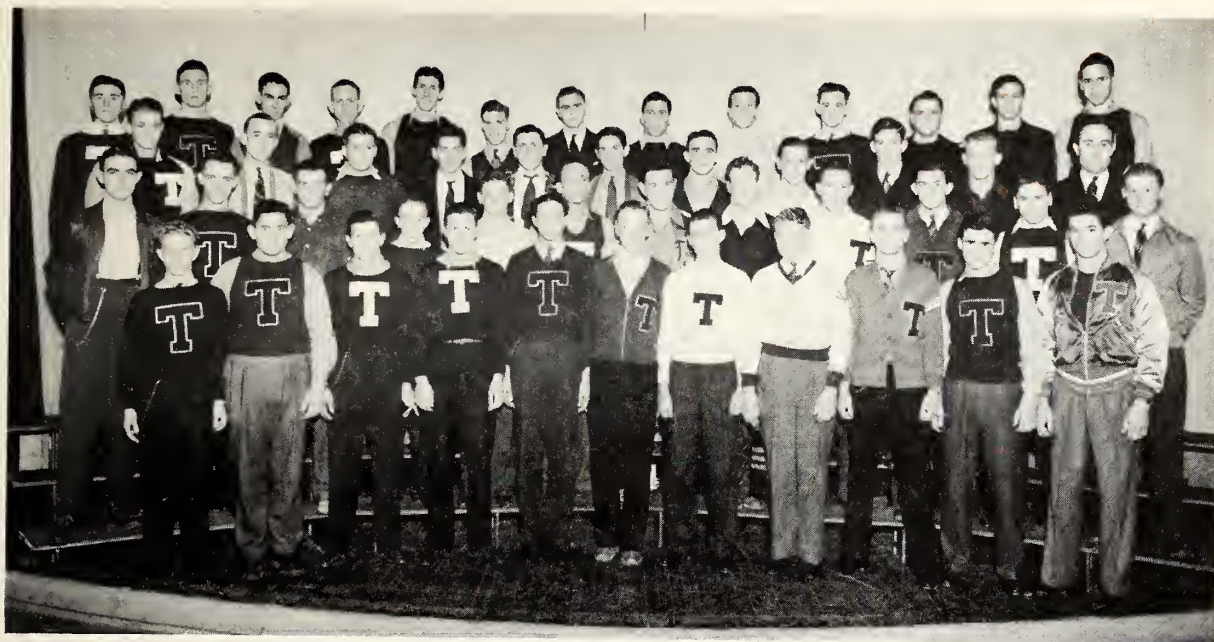

HI-Y

Hi-Y

Opening everything with a bang, the Hi-Y has enjoyed a successful year. The membership drive, with the 49'ers gold rush as the theme, was the inaugural attempt of combining Hi-Y boys and Key-stoner girls in working on selling memberships, and evidently due to the feminine touch, the outcome was more successful than in any previous year. However, the culmination of the attempt was the most exciting climax ever witnessed by any Hi-Y'er, the losing teams finding their vision hampered by delicious custard pie and their hair tangled from the inexpert barbering of the winners.

LETTERMEN

Lettermen

If on alternate Thursdays, you hear a sudden crash in the north auditorium, you may expect to see Mode Perry come sailing out into the hall, for the Lettermen are probably only being excited by his persistent dissenting.

This association is under the sponsorship of Grady Skillern and is composed of boys who have showed outstanding ability in some field of athletics. They have planned many worthwhile activities, one of which is a gigantic banquet scheduled for the end of the year, bringing the Central and Webster athletes together.

THE TULSA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Tulsa Historical Society

This baby among Central's organizations has, since last year, become a marked success. Its purpose, to increase popular interest in preserving records or items of historical value, has lead it into many phases of city and state history. During the society's short existence its members have acquired, among other things, Tulsa's first post office equipment and the Treaty of 1866 in the Cherokee language. Mrs. Louise Whitman, sponsor, expects the society to add more historical bric-a-brac to its collection, which is eventually to grow into a museum.

RETAIL SELLING

Retail Selling

When upon entering one of Tulsa's stores you see and joyfully greet a high school friend only to meet a politely dignified reply of "Good morning! May I help you?", you're not speaking to the wrong person nor are you in the wrong store. Your friend is a member of Tulsa Central's retail selling class.

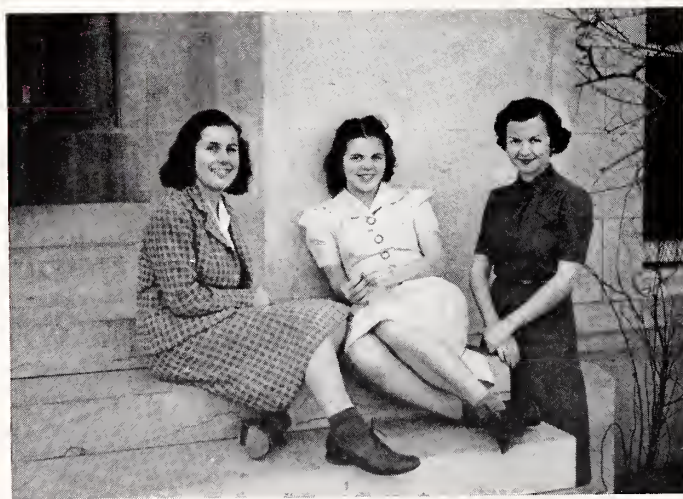

This class is designed to meet the increasing need of earning while learning and allows students to gain experience while still in school. The group has branched out until it is possible for the students to work in almost any business of their choice.

Girl Scouts

The meetings are opened by Marianne, minutes are read, dues collected and all other minor business transacted. Then the members of the club, which has been organized since 1925, go into action on their current project, which, this year, happens to be the construction of a small recreation cabin at their meeting place. Their hardest work to date has been to get lumber companies to donate building material.

In summer the Girl Scouts repair to their haven of refuge, Camp Scott in the Locust Grove country, and have a jolly time roughing it.

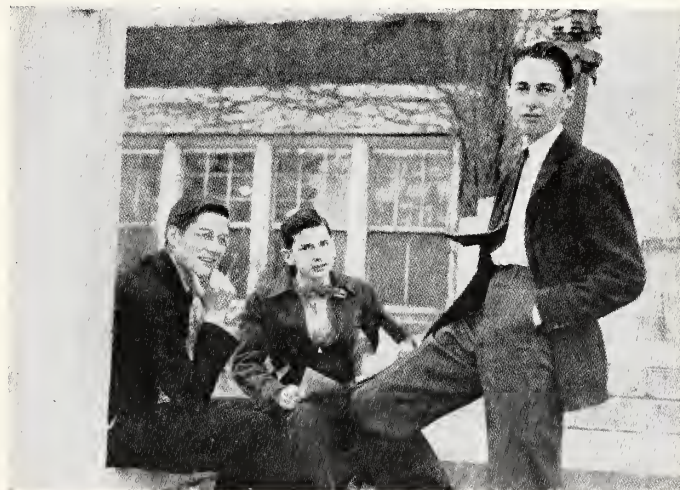

SCHOOL LIFE

FIRST Row—Lee Harrington, DeWitt Anderson, Gibson Byrd, Mary Lou Arnold, Martha Belle Lindsay, Dorothy Jenneman, Dorothy Lee, DuRee Hollis, Hulda Miller, Doris Hinds, Buddy Weddell. SECOND Row—Ward H. Green, director of English; Mary Perrin, Patricia Stewart, Melba McNutt, Faith Neumann, Patricia Medlin, Cecile Davis, Pauline Crisp, Priscilla Green, Marguerite Horton, Anna Sherley Brown, Dorothy Spencer, Virginia Harding, Floydane Thomason. THIRD Row—Lucille Thomas, Wilma Dean Henry, Betty Anne Stowell, Shirley Aaronson, Fay Ola Greene, Janet Ellis, Emily Hill, Ailene Smith, Sue Jones, Mae Murray, Lavelle Alexander, Mary Jo Hilton, Jean Baxter, sponsor. FOURTH Row—Frances Cooper, Betty Jean Wadell, Harry Brooks, Madelyn Grubbs, Mary Mason, Floreine Brooks, Martha Pitcock, Mary Alice Byrd, Gloria Hilditch, Dorothy Smittle, Virginia Dodd, Lois Godown, Don Findlay, Alton Prater, Lee Livingstone, faculty sponsor at Daniel Webster. FIFTH Row—Bill Forney, Buddy Fisher, Albert Lott, John H. Brown, Sumpter Fisher, Jimmy Gibbs, Marietta Fidler, Ellen Holmes, Marian Dorney, Elaine Young, Beatrice Hengst, Mildred Jacobs, Walter Oakes, William N. Smith, Bill Hall, Haskell Coplin.

School Life

This organization is a long-suffering target for anyone who feels like blowing off steam. It's just a case of not being able to please all of the people all of the time; although sometimes the staff thinks it can't please any of the people any of the time, but that's just pessimism. With Bill and Walter dashing off editorial gems, Haskell dishing out sensational sports stories, and Anderson and Fisher striking pay dirt right and left, Tulsa School Life can't help being successful.

Congeniality is what makes life, especially School Life, so enjoyable.

SAFETY PATROL

FIRST Row—Gordon Banner, Ponjab David Angell, Charles Doyle, Joe McMullin, Robert Brazier.
SECOND Row—Carl Finke, Billy Kerley, Allen West, Clarence De Garmo, Dan Rogers. THIRD Row—
Edmund Bard, Bill Carper, Ben West, Harold James, sponsor; Lee Widiger, James Polston.

Safety Patrol

If you should hear someone shout at you, "Get back on the curb, you! Don't you know the traffic is going the other way?" don't be surprised, for it is one of Central's Safety Patrolmen exercising his duty and trying to help you take proper care of your own life and limb.

The Safety Patrol was organized last semester to assist the city traffic officers in providing safe crossings near the school. At first, membership was limited to Boy Scouts only, but now the patrol is open to any boy who has made passing grades in all his studies and who has the approval of the sponsor and the captain.

P.-T. A. Board

This is the group of parents who really live up to their promise to come to school and see what Johnny and Susie are doing. The Parent-Teacher Association sponsors back-to-school night for parents each year, at which time parents follow the regular schedule of their prodigies.

Besides the close contact that this organization maintains between parents, teachers and students, the Parent-Teacher Association offers scholarships, and gives generously to the student aid fund.

In addition to serious tasks, the association sponsors a banquet each year at which time all formality is cast aside.

As the cameraman looks through his lens at the beauty of Central high school, so the seniors have observed it for three years. They have seen their school enhanced by the blooming beauty of springtime and by the cold loveliness of winter. They have seen it from the noble front entrance and from every other angle. And however they look at it, it still stands for wisdom and knowledge, the ideals of the Great Spirit.

Words by
JANE KIRK

Where the Arkansas is winding, and the O-sage Hills look down, proudly stands our Tul-sa
High School, beaming nation-wide re-noun, Its true bonds can never be broken, nor its loy-al spir-it die, ev-er staunch we'll stand to geth-er, ev-er bound by mem-ry's tie ^{chorus} Let us now our voices raise in a joy-ful song of praise. for we love the Tulsa Spir-it-never drifting with the stream. Then in faith and chari-ty may our mot-to ev-er be, "Here's a heart for Tulsa High School, for the Crimson and the Cream"

School Hymn

DOROTHY NAYLOR

Words by
DORIS ALLEN

With thy vision light our eyes,
Show thy heights above,
Grant us wisdom, thou art wise,
Teach us thy great love
Consecrate our aim sincere
Cleanse each inmost soul
O Great Spirit, be thou near Distant shines the goal

For the beauty through each day
Joy and friendship true
Gifts of thine along the way
Hear our thanks anew
When we gain the farthest height
By thy wisdom taught
We shall find thee, truth and light
Thou art all we sought

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF
FRANCIS C. McCULLOUGH, BY HIS LONG-TIME ASSOCIATES ON THE FACULTY OF CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

WHEREAS, In the sudden death of Francis C. McCullough while occupied in the faithful discharge of his duties at Central High School on Wednesday morning, October 26, 1938, the faculty and the students of this institution suffered a startling and grievous loss; and

WHEREAS, The sincerity, the uprightness, the industry, and the never-failing promptness and good-will of Francis C. McCullough have been impressed upon us during the whole time the school has occupied this building; and

WHEREAS, It is our sense that the spirit which characterized the life and work of Francis C. McCullough is worthy of permanent record; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That a copy of this testimony be offered for reading to the Board of Education in regularly assembled meeting and for record in the minutes thereof; and that copies be offered for publication in Tulsa School Life, and in the Tom Tom.

RESOLVED, That the original of this testimony be presented in person by the undersigned to Mrs. Bertha McCullough, widow of Francis C. McCullough, in token of our sympathy and respect, and in behalf of the entire faculty and student body.

Acknowledgments

Gazing in retrospect at the growth of Central High School from a tiny building to a modern institution of learning, one may see that our school has become a leader among schools.

As the Tom Tom Editorial Staff of 1939, it has been our aim to present views of life in Central as we found it. For the assistance given in accomplishing this purpose we, the members, wish to express our sincere appreciation.

To the Board of Education, for making possible the publication of this book; to Miss Alphild Larson and the assembly program committee for the Tom Tom assembly; to Miss Edna May Weeks and the senior class; to all those persons in the Board of Education Print Shop who have given so generously of their time and interest; to Miss Helene Baird, without whose timely assistance many of Tom Tom's records would be inadequate; to James Holder, for information about the department of boys' physical education activities; to the administration and to all departments of the high school for their encouragement and suggestions—to all these people the Tom Tom staff owes a debt of gratitude.

This is the end of our 10th year together and I do believe you've grown sweeter each year.
